LWML-C SEMINAR

The LWML-C Seminar theme on Saturday, October 3rd, 2026 at Christ Lutheran, Petawawa, is "The Lord is My Song" Isaiah 12:2. A webinar was planned with Pastor DJ Kim, Regina Police Chaplain (previously sponsored Vicar), but unfortunately he will be with his ailing mother. Instead we will have a recorded interview to share during the Seminar. Locksley is invited to prepare questions and send them to Rena Detlefsen at: vpdalaurentian@lutheranwomen.ca by August 20th. The following is a message from Pastor DJ Kim... "I am the pastor of a 'mobile church.' The congregation I serve is made up of more than 150 hardcore gangsters—those breaking the law—and the police officers of the Regina and Moose Jaw Police Services—those working to uphold the law in the community. "This mobile church moves from one place to another, wherever the 911 radio dispatch leads. It responds to emergency calls dealing with domestic violence; homicide; suicide; and fatal car accidents. It also provides care in the police station; in the courtroom; in holding cells; as well as in youth and adult correctional facilities. Central to the mission of this mobile church is providing God's Word, hearing confession and delivering the sacramental gift of Absolution—first instituted by Christ Jesus Himself—to the dying, to the family members of victims, and to police officers dealing with trauma experienced on the job. In this mobile church I have worked with some very, very violent people... people who are involved in the majority of violent gun crime in the province of Saskatchewan." —Chaplain DJ Kim, LCC Missions | Street Reach, SK

Job 38:4-18 "Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding. Who determined its measurements—surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it? On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone, when the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy? "Or who shut in the sea with doors when it burst out from the womb, when I made clouds its garment and thick darkness its swaddling band, and prescribed limits for it and set bars and doors, and said, 'Thus far shall you come, and no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stayed'? "Have you commanded the morning since your days began, and caused the dawn to know its place, that it might take hold of the skirts of the earth, and the wicked be shaken out of it? It is changed like clay under the seal, and its features stand out like a garment. From the wicked their light is withheld, and their uplifted arm is broken. "Have you entered into the springs of the sea, or walked in the recesses of the deep? Have the gates of death been revealed to you, or have you seen the gates of deep darkness? Have you comprehended the expanse of the earth? Declare, if you know all this.

Romans 10:5-17 For Moses writes about the righteousness that is based on the law, that the person who does the commandments shall live by them. But the righteousness based on faith says, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?' " (that is, to bring Christ down) or " 'Who will descend into the abyss?' " (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scripture says, "Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For "everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved." But how are they to call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news!" But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed what he has heard from us?" So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ.

Matt. 14:22-33 Immediately he made the disciples get into the boat and go before him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but the boat by this time was a long way from the land, beaten by the waves, for the wind was against them. And in the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea. But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, and said, "It is a ghost!" and they cried out in fear. But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Take heart; it is I. Do not be afraid." And Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come." So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus. But when he saw the wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink he cried out, "Lord, save me." Jesus immediately reached out his hand and took hold of him, saying to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" And when they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshipped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."
